

1. Each time customer register an account, information added to customer profile database
2. ML in cloud for recommendation
3. Product listing based on recommending results (for accounts logged in)
4. Shopping carts (in customer profile database, with entry like which product this user saved as its favorite)
5. Payment service (related to customer database, and inventory database)
6. Shipping service (related to inventory database, and send user with messages, and user accounts with shipping updates)

